Summer Advantage Program

Delaware Law offers all students admitted to the fall 2019 entering class the opportunity to start law school in June instead of August through participation in the Summer Advantage Program.

Students in the Summer Advantage Program will take Constitutional Law: The First Amendment, a three-credit course that examines the First Amendment of the United States Constitution. You will focus in particular on the fundamental protections of freedom of speech and freedom of religion. This three-credit course is an enhanced version of the two-credit course that students not participating in the program will be taking in the spring of their 1L year. The course being offered this summer has been specially designed for new law students and will be taught with an eye towards helping students transition to law school. The subject matter is engaging, important, and foundational.

The course will be taught by the Dean of Delaware Law School and Professor of Law Rodney Smolla. Dean Smolla is a nationally-known scholar and expert on matters relating to constitutional law, civil rights, freedom of speech, and mass media, particularly matters relating to libel and privacy. He is an exceptional teacher and is the co-author of the casebook you’ll be using. He is a frequent advocate on a wide variety of issues relating to constitutional law. He has presented oral argument in state and federal courts across the country, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

You will also be supported in your efforts by one of our skilled and experienced academic success professors. Professor Alice Eakin will offer optional workshops during the summer and will be available for any questions you might have about becoming a successful law student.

The program will begin with Mandatory Orientation Sessions on May 28th and 29th at 6:00 p.m. All students must register with the Admissions Office on May 28th prior to the start of Orientation. You may register beginning at 10:00 a.m. in the Admissions Office on May 28th.

Classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday evening for seven weeks beginning June, 10, 2019 and ending July 24, 2019. All classes begin at 6:00 p.m. and end at 9:00 p.m. The final examination will be on Monday, July 29, 2019 at 6:00 p.m.

We are also pleased to announce a $500 grant will be awarded to every student who registers for the program. The grant will be applied to tuition charges in July. Financial Aid is available for this program.

On-campus housing will be available during the summer. On-campus housing information is included.

If you are eager to begin law school this summer, rather than waiting until the fall, we hope you will take advantage of this opportunity. Please return the attached form no later than May 1, 2019, to reserve your seat in the Summer Advantage Program.
