

James Brobyn – Managing Partner & President – Calyx Capital
Wilmington, Delaware

An entrepreneur and social activist, Brobyn has founded several businesses and raised tens of millions of dollars for business ventures and charity. Brobyn partnered with Leja, Tobon, and Wright to found and lead iVIK Holdings and its subsidiaries. Brobyn is an advisor and advocate for the Veterans Cannabis Project and has consulted for operating medical cannabis companies in Delaware, Pennsylvania, and California. A former U.S. Marine infantry officer, he served two combat tours in Iraq before becoming the Executive Director of a 4-star rated national charity that serves military veterans.

Brobyn currently leads all operations for Calyx Capital's portfolio companies, and manages investor relations, and all business development.