

Stephanie L. Chapman, CPA

With the support of BLS's International Services team, Stephanie specializes in providing United States tax compliance and advisory services for foreign entities and U.S. expatriates. Stephanie works with foreign business owners and their advisors to establish their tax residency, develop banking and legal relationships and remain ahead of their various tax exposures. Expatriates benefit from Stephanie's experience in minimizing tax liabilities through the benefits of treaties and incentives. Stephanie is also responsible for identifying training opportunities for staff as it relates to the International Services division, as well as niche business development and growth.

Stephanie has been published in local trade magazines including Delaware Banker. She has been invited to speak at the IRS Small Practitioner's Annual Tax Forum, the Delaware Tax Institute, the Prime Global World, and North and Latin American National Tax Conference, which includes speaking to entrepreneurs from the U.K. and Germany on expanding to the U.S. market.
