Daniel F. Lindley, Esq.

Dan Lindley has served as the Fiduciary Practice Executive for Northern Trust's Global Family Offices group since April 2015. Prior to that he was Managing Director of GFO's business for the EMEA Region, based in London. Dan was the founding President of The Northern Trust Company of Delaware from 2005 to 2012. Before joining Northern Trust in 2005, Dan was managing director in the Estate Planning Department of U.S. Trust. Prior to that, he was in private law practice in Delaware for 25 years, and authored some of Delaware's seminal trust legislation, including its repeal of the Rule against Perpetuities in 1995 and its self-settled asset protection trust statute in 1997.

Dan is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Delaware. He is also a member of the American Bar Association, the Delaware State Bar Association and its Estates and Trusts section, the International Bar Association and the Society of Trust and Estate Planners. He is a frequent speaker on using trusts as a planning vehicle for U.S. and international families.

Dan has a J.D. degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. He graduated with a B.A. degree, magna cum laude, from Williams College, Williamstown, MA.

Dan resides in Wilmington, Delaware with his spouse, Margaret. He is a trustee of the Delaware Art Museum in Wilmington and a member of the Finance Committee of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Delaware. He is the former Board Chair of the Blood Bank of Delmarva, the largest supplier of blood and blood products on the Delmarva Peninsula.
