

Laura A. Lloyd, CPA

Laura enhances the client experience as a small business and tax advisor for the clients of Albero, Kupferman & Associates, LLC.

As a member of AKA's tax team, Laura's primary focus has been working with individuals and small businesses on tax planning, projecting, preparation and strategy. She enjoys providing value through collaboration and assisting clients to not only meet their filing requirements but also to achieve their business goals. Internally, she is actively involved in training new staff, coordinating team events and marketing/social media initiatives.

Recent contributions include:

- Advising clients on multi-state tax filing requirements and opportunities
- Design of the firm's new logo, marketing materials, and website
- Overseeing the summer internship program
- Assisting clients to avoid federal and state tax penalties and interest

Laura keeps on top of changes in the accounting and tax worlds through technical reading and presenting on various tax topics with a number of local businesses and organizations. She helped expand the firm's recruiting efforts by creating a presence as a potential employer at her alma mater, the University of Delaware.

In her spare time, Laura is a frequent traveler, hoping to go anywhere and everywhere. She enjoys spending time with friends and family, watching the Eagles, cooking, reading and spending time with her lab, Bernie. She is active in the Wilmington community, attending various charitable 5ks and fundraising events.
