

Kimberly Gill McKinnon, Esquire

Kimberly is Special Counsel with the Trusts, Estates & Tax Group of Morris Nichols Arsht & Tunnell LLP. She represents numerous institutional fiduciaries, high net-worth individuals and families, and other attorneys in the areas of Delaware trust law and federal estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer taxation, as well as privately owned family companies and tax exempt organizations with respect to federal tax matters and formation and governance under Delaware law.

Kimberly's trusts and estates practice emphasizes the favorable features of trust administration under Delaware law and legacy planning for high-net-worth families and individuals. Her practice pertains to all aspects of trust administration and planning, including petitioning Delaware courts with respect to trust matters, modifying irrevocable trusts, assisting with the relocation of trusts to the State of Delaware, providing advice with respect to fiduciary duties, and rendering trust and tax law opinions. Kimberly's practice also involves estate planning, asset protection planning and business succession planning for high net-worth individuals and families, and assisting other attorneys with Delaware specific trust matters.
