

Luke W. Mette, Esquire

Luke W. Mette was named Chief Disciplinary Counsel for the Office of Disciplinary Counsel by the Delaware Supreme Court in January 2019.

Mr. Mette has been a member of the Delaware Bar since 1988. He clerked for U.S. District Court Judge Joseph J. Farnan, Jr., from 1988-1989, and then practiced law at the firm Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell from 1989-1994. In 1994, Mr. Mette joined the law department of a company that became AstraZeneca, commencing a 21-year in-house career during which he held a number of legal, management and leadership roles, including Deputy General Counsel, Litigation. Following a return to private practice as a partner in the Business Litigation Group at McCarter & English, Mr. Mette was appointed City Solicitor for the City of Wilmington in January 2017. He has been an adjunct professor at Delaware Law School since 2018.

Mr. Mette received his law degree from George Washington University in 1988 and his undergraduate degree from Haverford College in 1985.