

Thomas R. Pulsifer, Esq.

Mr. Pulsifer is a partner with the law firm of Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell in Wilmington, Delaware. He received his B.A., magna cum laude, from Middlebury College in 1980, his J.D. from New York University in 1983, and received his LL.M. in Taxation in 1985 from New York University. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Pulsifer is admitted to the practice of law before all Delaware courts, the Delaware District Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the United States Tax Court. He is a member of the New York and Delaware Bars, the American Bar Association Sections on Taxation and Real Property, Probate and Trust Law, the Estates and Trusts Section and the Tax Section of the Delaware Bar Association and the Wilmington Tax Group. He is past Chairman of the Estates and Trusts Section of the Delaware Bar Association and a past member of the Board of Directors of the Estate Planning Council of Delaware. He is a fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel. Mr. Pulsifer's practice is focused primarily in the areas of trust law and estate planning. He is Delaware trust counsel to several national banks and general trust law counsel to several Delaware trust companies.