

Joanna S. Suder, Esquire

Joanna S. Suder is a Deputy Attorney General in the Civil Division of the Delaware Department of Justice. She represents the Delaware Division of Public Health, the Office of Health Facilities Licensing and Certification and the Delaware Health Care Commission. Joanna joined the Delaware Department of Justice as a member of the Affirmative Litigation Unit in 2013, transitioning to her current position within the Health Law Unit (now the Health and Public Safety Unit) in 2014. In addition to her client representation, Joanna chairs the DOJ's hiring committee, spearheading the summer law clerk program.