

Scott E. Swenson, Esquire

Scott Swenson is a partner in the Tax, Trusts and Estates group at Connolly Gallagher LLP. He works with Delaware clients to help them implement their estate planning goals and tax and wealth transfer strategies. He advises trustees and other fiduciaries on matters including trust administration, trust modification, and risk management. When necessary, Scott handles estate and trust litigation – ranging from will contests to trust disputes at the highest levels of stakes and sophistication.

Chambers USA: High Net Worth has ranked Scott among Delaware's top practitioners in the area of Private Wealth. He is recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® as the 2019 "Lawyer of the Year" for Trust and Estate Litigation in Delaware, and is rated AV Preeminent®, Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating for lawyers.

Scott is past-chair of the Delaware State Bar Association's Estates & Trusts Section and he is president of the Wilmington Tax Group. Scott is also dedicated to pro bono service, serving on the board of directors of Delaware Careplan, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to managing special needs trusts.
