WHY WE STARTED VERYAPT

VeryApt was born from the simple realization that the small things about an apartment are often the most important: a friendly doorman, lots of sunlight in the living room, a running trail nearby, or that amazing hole-in-the-wall Thai restaurant across the street. We understand that the frustrations of apartment hunting are universal, but share a belief that it doesn’t have to be. We know what makes an apartment truly feel like home is unique for each person and that’s why our focus is on bringing you personalized recommendations based on timely, relevant, and real user reviews. We’ll be there every step of the way to help you find your perfect apartment.

NEIGHBORHOODS EXPLAINED
An overview of the most popular neighborhoods for Delaware Law School students

1. North Wilmington

40% of Delaware Law School students

The majority of Delaware Law students live north of downtown for its proximity to campus. In many cases, students live in apartments that reside only two-three minutes from campus. In the northern neighborhoods of Wilmington, you can find shopping centers, apartment complexes, and easy access to major highways.

2. Trolley Square

25% of Delaware Law School students

For students who want to live closer to the heart of the city, the Trolley Square neighborhood is a popular, yet quiet option. Trolley Square provides great access to everything - restaurants, grocery stores, and parks. Many places in Trolley Square are just steps from Brandywine Park/Creek for those who want easy access to outdoor activities.

3. West Chester

5% of Delaware Law School students

West Chester is a lively town in southeastern PA. This is a good option for students who want a suburban feel, but still want to live in an area with plenty to do. Since the area is home to West Chester University, there are many restaurant and shopping options. Delaware Law students can get to campus in under 25 minutes.

4. Glen Mills

5% of Delaware Law School students

Only 15 minutes from campus, Glen Mills is a small suburban town in PA - just across the Delaware/PA border. While there are many apartment complexes in this area, it is primarily filled with single-family homes and smaller properties. In Glen Mills, students can visit Newlin Grist Mill Park which has over 8 miles of trails.

The Mayfair is located in what I’ve heard called “Old Folks Square”; I’m not normally worried about the area. I feel safe walking during the day and really enjoy the park being only 2 blocks away. The 10 minute walk to the grocery store and 15 minute walk to the bus makes this a good option for someone without a car.

I like the area - I pass a shopping center on the way to class which is good if I need to pick food up in a hurry. Close to park but not too much else to do in the immediate area.
On Campus
An Ideal Place to Live and Learn

ABOUT ON CAMPUS

Delaware Law On-Campus Housing provides the ultimate in convenience. It's no wonder so many students choose to call campus their home! Single occupancy resident hall rooms, along with one- and two-bedroom townhomes are located immediately adjacent to the main law building on the Law School's 34-acre suburban campus. Centrally located within walking distance of a shopping mall, grocery stores, and multiple restaurants provides many retail and dining options. Free ample parking, plenty of green space and an on-campus gym round out just some of the many amenities.

WHAT RESIDENTS THINK ABOUT ON CAMPUS

Review by Delaware Law Student  ⮕ CONCORD HALL

There are many different bars, restaurants, and retail stores in this area. There is a shopping center within walking distance. It is very busy and the traffic can get loud. However, the campus itself is quiet and well maintained. Also there are several nature parks in the area that offer walking trails and beautiful views. They offer a peaceful escape from the stresses of law school.

Review by Delaware Law Student  ⮕ SHIPLEY HALL

Lots of grocery stores and shopping nearby, plus many restaurants and bars to choose from. Everything you may need is within 5-10 minutes of a drive.

“I love the location of my place along with the amenities. My apartment is brand new and the management on the property is excellent. A lot of my fellow law school classmates also live here. I'm at the law school in 2-3 minutes and pretty much everything I need is here. We have a nice gym and an easy to use pet spa. In the summer, it's very fun to socialize at the beautiful, well-maintained pool. The building also has a game & media room with BYOB bars and big screen tvs on the main & 2d floor. Perfect group study or social space! Location is definitely fantastic. Obviously they are very pet friendly which is a plus. I attend Solidcore, a boutique fitness studio which is also on the property and I'm able to get my hair done at the salon downstairs in my building.”

CAVALIER COUNTRY CLUB APARTMENTS

Review by Widener Delaware Law Student

“Although it is not a super close apartment, it is within a 20 minute drive from campus. There are plenty of food options and entertainment options near me. Plus the neighborhood is safe. Also the apartments are cheap for the space you get. My apartment is 1,405 with a built-in washer-dryer, Walk-in Closets and dishwasher. There are cheaper apartments if you do not want walk-in closets. Downside is that it does not come furnished.”

FOURTEEN-O-ONE CONDOS

Review by Widener Delaware Law Student

“Many elderly people living here, so it is quiet for the most part. Condo board’s rules are strict and they will fine you for not adhering. It is a good price though.”

THE MAYFAIR APARTMENTS

Review by Widener Delaware Law Student

“The Mayfair has been a convenient and affordable home for myself, my partner, and our two cats. Utilities being included in the rent more than makes up for the minor issues I’ve experienced here and there. My largest complaint is that the office is open on an inconsistent schedule because of what I presume to be understaffing. That said, the office staff are nice and make an effort to work to make sure things work out.”
