

International Legal Scholars Academy

Outstanding lectures from dedicated legal scholars

October 26–30, 2020

Specialized legal education topics include*:

- Corporate & Business Law
- CyberSecurity & Privacy
- U.S. Politics & Constitutional Law
- International Money Laundering & Corruption

Delaware Law School presents its 2020 International Legal Scholars Academy for Judiciary, Practitioners, and Law Students. Our one-week immersion program offers an opportunity to participate in unique lectures from specialized legal experts on a variety of U.S. and International legal concepts. Participants receive an educational and cultural experience and collaborate both professionally and socially with judges and legal scholars from around the globe.

Events include round-table discussions with local and global judiciary and law practitioners and attendance at Delaware Law School lectures of interest. A Certificate of Completion will be presented to attendees.

Events may include excursions to:

- U.S. Supreme Court, Washington, D.C.
- Delaware or Pennsylvania Courts for meet-and-greet with local judges
- Observe criminal or civil trials at local courtrooms
