

Make the most of your law school experience by living on campus. Delaware Law is the ideal place to live and learn—conveniently located near cultural, recreational, retail, and dining options.

Delaware Law offers on-campus housing for students in single-occupancy residence halls. For upper-level students, one and two-bedroom apartments are also available. All are located adjacent to the main law building with easy access to the library, classrooms, and student gathering and study spaces.
