Required Documents: The following documents must be submitted to the Legal Studies Department

- 1. College transcript. If you attended any other college(s) prior to Widener University Delaware Law School, you must request that a copy of your college transcript(s) be mailed directly from that institution(s) to the Legal Education Institute office. We must receive a transcript from each college attended before you can be admitted as a matriculated student. Students who do not disclose prior college records at the time of application are subject to dismissal when prior attendance is discovered.
 - 2. Proof of high school completion. All students seeking admission to matriculated status must provide a high school diploma or a G.E.D. Only individuals who have earned at least 60 semester hours of college credit are excused from this requirement.
- If you attended high school or college under a different name, please ask the institution(s) to indicate your current name on the transcript.

Personal. Please prepare a typed statement explaining why you have chosen to apply to Widener University Delaware Law School, Legal Studies Program. You may use any supplemental materials to provide the Admissions Committee with information regarding your application.

On evaluating your academic performance and in fulfilling our commitment to diversity, we may consider relevant factors such as a history of economic or educational disadvantage, cultural or language differences, disability, and whether you believe your admission would help to correct underrepresentation of a particular minority or disadvantaged group in the legal nurse consultant profession.

Confidentiality. In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, matriculating students do have access to their permanent files, which may include forms such as this one. Colleges do not provide access to admissions records to applicants, those students who are denied admission, or those students who decline an offer of admission.

NOTE: Any false or misleading statement, incomplete or inaccurate information, omissions of required information, or failure to update changes in information in this application may cause you to be denied admission; or if admitted, to be dismissed from Widener University.

Notice to Applicants: It is important to note that LNC's may not provide legal services directly to the public except as permitted by law. LNC's work under the direct supervision of attorney. Further, all Legal Nurse Consultant students must take at least ten semester credits or the equivalent of legal speciality courses through traditional classroom instruction.

If this application is accepted, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of Widener University Delaware Law School.

I certify that all of the information provided above and submitted to all departments of Widener University Delaware Law School is complete and accurate. Omission or falsification of information may be grounds for dismissal.
