Huth Reynolds LLP , Washington, DC	2021-2024
Of Counsel Worked as an independent contractor with former Cravath colleague and firm founder, Karl Huth. Represented Illumina in its acquisition of GRAIL; evaluated strength of FTC's challenge to the acquisition and drafted trial documents. Was sought out for my expertise by an investment firm; aided client in valuing an antitrust lawsuit that was an asset in a bankruptcy proceeding by assessing the probability of a successful trial outcome.

Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP , Washington, DC	2015-2018
Associate Practice focused on antitrust matters. Drafted complaints, briefs pertaining to dispositive motions, requests for documents, interrogatories, responses to document requests, and responses to interrogatories. Counseled client on state and federal choice-of-law issues implicated in multidistrict litigation. Constructed novel “installed-based opportunism” antitrust theory of harm for client in what was ultimately a contract dispute.

Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, New York, NY

Associate

2005 – 2010

Summer Associate

2003

Practice focused on all phases of complex commercial litigation, with a focus on antitrust and patent matters. Drafted appellate briefs, trial briefs, briefs in support of dispositive motions and motions in limine, and letter briefs. Deposed key trial witnesses. Outlined direct and cross examinations of key trial witnesses. Prepared federal appellate court oral arguments. Constructed novel defenses to claims client impermissibly monopolized by breaching commitments to standard-setting organizations. Served as the “beach master” for a trial before the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO)—i.e., managed all trial logistics both before and during trial. Supervised teams of junior associates.
