Brief of Civil Procedure and Antitrust Professors as Amici Curiae on Behalf of Plaintiff-Appellee Supporting Affirmance

2025

Epic Games, Inc. v. Apple Inc. (25-2935), Counsel for Amici Curiae

Co-authored brief in support of Epic Games in opposition to Apple's appeal of district court's contempt order

Amici Curiae Brief of Law Professors in Support of Appellant, Federal Trade Commission v. Microsoft Corporation (23-15992), Counsel for Amici Curiae Drafted and filed brief in support of FTC in its challenge to Microsoft’s acquisition of Activision on the basis of Microsoft’s ability to partially foreclose rivals	2023
Amicus Curiae Brief of Law Professors as Amici Curiae in Support of Neither Party, United States v. Assa Abloy AB (22-CV-2791) (antitrust), Attorney for Amici Curiae (Herbert Hovenkamp, Erik Hovenkamp, A. Doug Melamed, Steven C. Salop, Jennifer E. Sturiale) Co-drafted and filed brief arguing that defendants should bear the burden of establishing that divestiture remedies will cure the expected competitive problems	2022
Huth Reynolds LLP , Washington, DC Of Counsel Worked as an independent contractor with former Cravath colleague and firm founder, Karl Huth. Represented Illumina in its acquisition of GRAIL; evaluated strength of FTC’s challenge to the acquisition and drafted trial documents. Was sought out for my expertise by an investment firm; aided client in valuing an antitrust lawsuit that was an asset in a bankruptcy proceeding by assessing the probability of a successful trial outcome.	2021-2024
Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP , Washington, DC Associate Practice focused on antitrust matters. Drafted complaints, briefs pertaining to dispositive motions, requests for documents, interrogatories, responses to document requests, and responses to interrogatories. Counseled client on state and federal choice-of-law issues implicated in multidistrict litigation. Constructed novel “installed-based opportunism” antitrust theory of harm for client in what was ultimately a contract dispute.	2015-2018
Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP , New York, NY Associate Summer Associate Practice focused on all phases of complex commercial litigation, with a focus on antitrust and patent matters. Drafted appellate briefs, trial briefs, briefs in support of dispositive motions and motions in limine, and letter briefs. Deposed key trial witnesses. Outlined direct and cross examinations of key trial witnesses. Prepared federal appellate court oral arguments. Constructed novel defenses to claims client impermissibly monopolized by breaching commitments to standard-setting organizations. Served as the “beach master” for a trial before the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO)—i.e., managed all trial logistics both before and during trial. Supervised teams of junior associates.	2005 – 2010 2003
