

ACCEPTED APPLICANT CHECKLIST:

Make sure you check off each item before the fall!

Review all acceptance packet materials → Read all acceptance materials carefully. Contact the Admissions Office at delawarelaw@widener.edu with questions.

Learn more and connect with us → Explore opportunities to engage with our community at delawarelaw.widener.edu/visit and make sure to follow Delaware Law School on social media.

Submit your seat deposit → Submit your non-refundable $400 seat deposit to secure your place in the fall entering class. Please submit your seat deposit at succeed.widener.edu/register/delaware_seat_deposit.

Activate Your myWidener Account → myWidener will provide access to Financial Aid Awards, Class Schedules, Tuition, Email, etc. Please take time now to activate your account. Instructions are available in the Matriculation Memorandum.

Bookmark the Orientation Page → Delawarelaw.widener.edu/Orientation offers helpful information and links to accepted applicant resources. Orientation information (including dates and first assignments) will be posted to this page.

Apply for Financial Aid → If you plan to apply for financial aid, please complete all steps outlined in the Delaware Law Financial Aid Checklist. For more information, visit delawarelaw.widener.edu/FA. You must apply for financial aid or establish a plan to pay tuition prior to Orientation.

Attend an Accepted Applicant Event → Accepted applicant events provide opportunities to get to know Delaware Law and meet faculty, staff, and current students. Event invitations will be sent to your email. For more information, please visit delawarelaw.widener.edu/AcceptedApplicantEvents.

Get to Know Wilmington → Delaware Law is moving! Our new location will place our students in the heart of a vibrant legal and cultural community in a uniquely central location. Learn more about our new home through the Visitor Guide for Greater Wilmington and the Brandywine Valley digital-editions.todaymediacustom.com/gwcvb/2026/#p=1

Find Housing → For more information about housing opportunities, please review the materials in your acceptance packet and visit delawarelaw.widener.edu/Orientation. For off-campus housing resources and to connect with classmates, use your school email to log in to our VeryApt portal at www.veryapt.com/portal/33/widener-university-delaware-law-school/login.

Submit Your Final Transcript → Your acceptance is conditioned upon our receipt of an official transcript showing successful completion of your undergraduate studies, including the date of conferral. You MUST submit your final official transcript to the Law School Admission Council (LSAC) by August 1st.

Submit Your MMR Record → Delaware state regulations require evidence of immunity to Measles, Mumps, and Rubella prior to your matriculation. In order to enroll, proof of immunity must be loaded to your Applicant Status Online (ASO) by August 1st.